

FL-GA Delegates to the LWML
National Convention
in Milwaukee,
WI,
June 2023

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Gayle Caruso

It's been about six weeks since the delegates (zone presidents), Pastor Narring (JR pastoral counselor), and I attended the LWML convention in Milwaukee, WI.

1. Here are some of the highlights:
The voting delegates (about 450) voted for a $2.35 million dollar Mission Goal.
2. 31 mission grants were voted in for the next biennium 2023-2025.
3. We have a new president, Eden Keefe.
(You can find out more information on lwml.org under the convention tab.)

The Missions in Action speakers were inspiring, showing us God using our mites for His Glory. We met and spoke with many of the exhibitors and had a blast at the Friday Fest.

Why am I telling you this?

1. Our conventions (national and district) are the best way to see how our LWML (Lutheran Women in Mission) works, and how our mission grant recipients are blessed by the mites given for them.
2. The opening service with music that helps us worship together as one.

3. Wonderful speakers who uplifted and made us think.
4. Networking that goes on at a convention is amazing!
The joy of watching women and men talking together is wonderful!

I am truly thankful to all the women who have come before me and those yet to come. Lutheran Women in Mission is not only a group of women who do Bible studies and make funeral food, they are women who pray together and lift each other up. They collect mites to support those in need and act as the hands and feet of Jesus here on earth. These women study God's word and show each other His light and others His love.

I encourage you to continue to uplift each other and encourage the women of your congregation to fellowship, study the Word and collect mites to further the kingdom of heaven. We are Lutheran Women in Mission Serving Him in Gladness!

I can't wait to see you at our retreat in September!

I've always wanted to read the Bible from beginning to end. After all, it's the foundational document for my faith. I desired to know everything that was in it. However, no matter how many times I tried, or how many Bible studies I attended, I never came close to succeeding.

One day, about six or seven years ago, I stumbled across a free audio Bible app after learning about it online. I was curious and decided to try it. I simply started in Genesis and listened my way through to Revelation. I also allowed myself to be flexible and didn't lock myself into a timeline. I would finish it when I finished it. Sometimes I listened for two minutes a day, and other times up to 20 or 30 minutes a day. Once, I went through all the gospels three to four times in a row before continuing on. More recently, I listened to Revelation a second time through.

There's something about hearing the Bible being read out loud that really resonates with me. It helps make the stories come to life, and it brings me peace and joy. God led me to something He knew would work for me. I am now "reading" the Bible for the fourth time since discovering this app. Thank you, Lord, for the different ways technology can help us to hear your Word.

Praise the Lord. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever (Ps 106:1 NIV)

FINANCIAL SECRETARY*Christine Jennison

Our summer vacation began, and ended, the same day. Everything ready to go. Car packed, route figured out, loose ends tied and off we go to my first college reunion at Concordia, River Forest. A few hours of travel and a stop for lunch and the rains came! We found a covered area where we could wait for the rain to slow down and get back on the road. Missed one turn off so tried another. With the rain and the growing darkness we did not see the car coming as we crossed over to go the other way. Two hours later we were in the hospital being checked over. Our car was totaled as was the other one. Two of our daughters were on the way to help us. God was, and is, with us throughout all of this. Yes, there are consequences but nothing so great that God can't help us handle it. Throughout it all God's peace and comfort was experienced as it continues to be felt.

As to the collections of mites and other offerings during the summer quarter things have been quieter than usual. We have received mites but not many other donations.

Special donations in honor of loved ones and others:

Memorial in memory of Roland Roehrs from Faith Lutheran, Parrish, FL

Mites given in memory of Mary Hafner from Hildur Klein

Memorial in memory of Anna Mann from Concordia Lutheran, Miami, FL

Memorial in memory of Steve McCarthy from Karen McCarthy

A Prayer Service donation to Mission Grants from St. Paul Lutheran, Miami, FL

If you do not have the Remittance slips you can find them in the Evangel, write them yourself, find them on line in the LWML FL-GA website, or ask me for copies.

VP MISSION SERVICE

Silvia Grasberger

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God (Philippians 4:6).

When my youngest son, Tyler, went into the Navy fifteen years ago, I prayed for his safety day and night from the moment he left for boot camp. God in His ultimate and perfect plan had him stationed in Hawaii for four years. During his four-year enlistment, he met his Hawaiian dream girl, and now beautiful wife, Jessalyn. I continued to pray for them to be blessed and for their Love to grow for each other stronger every day. God answered my prayers once again and blessed our family with two beautiful grandchildren: AKA Pineapple & Coconut. During this time, they were living in the Northeast and purchased a home to settle in. At this point I thought to myself, well it is God's will for them to live far away and we could visit each other on special occasions. But I never ceased to stop praying for God to bring them to Florida and thanking Him for the blessings He has given us. God really does listen to all our prayers, and He knows what we need in our hearts, and what is best for all. So let your request be known to God, He is all ears!

My son and his family now live seven minutes from us, and I get to see my grandchildren every day, plus I get to babysit my grandson!

VP SPIRITUAL GROWTH

Carol Jones

It seems everything about the fall just turns our thoughts to giving thanks. The long hot summer makes its way out and the cooler weather (we hope) will soon make its way in. The harvest season is right around the corner and Thanksgiving will soon follow. Even in our most difficult times we have much to be thankful for. God is good!

I am especially thankful for the ladies of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod who had the foresight all those years ago to organize themselves into a sisterhood that is focused on serving the Lord with gladness. They realized the importance of women helping each other become better equipped. We say the league pledge at our meetings, but I am also a big fan of our mission statement...

The mission of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League is to assist each woman of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in affirming her relationship with the Triune God so that she is enabled to use her gifts in ministry to the people of the world.

There have been so many wonderful, loving, and giving ladies who have assisted me in affirming my relationship with God and have touched my life through the LWML over the years. I am thankful for each and every one of them. I look forward to gathering together with all of you at our upcoming retreat and sharing even more meaningful moments with my sisters-in-Christ.

I challenge each of you to think about your special "sisters" during this season of Thanksgiving ahead, and to reach out by mail, email, phone, (or even text) and let them know how much they have meant to you as they assisted you in affirming your relationship with the Triune God. We have indeed been blessed.

VP MISSION GRANTS*Karen McCarthy

Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

Sometimes circumstances and life can be overwhelming. A job is lost; meeting everyday expenses becomes challenging; family or friends fall away; a loved one is seriously ill or dies. How can we be joyful and give thanks as we are directed to do when life seems out of control?

Thankfully, even when all seems lost, God is always present to comfort, guide, and strengthen us. He surrounds us with a family of believers who share His love with those in need. Our smiles, prayers, kind words, notes of encouragement, hugs, gifts from the kitchen, and time, talents, and treasures shared with others all speak loudly for our Lord, that He cares and provides. We truly are blessed to be His loving voice, feet, and hands to those in need; and often these acts of service turn into blessings for us as well.

I am thankful to you, my sisters in Christ, for showing me through the years how to serve the Lord and be a Christian woman, daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, and mentor to others. What a blessing you are to me! Thank you also for your love offerings and mites which reach others in His name.

Be sure to visit the district Mission Grant table at the retreat to learn more about your District mission grants in action.

In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you
(1 Thessalonians 5 NKJV)

COUNSELOR'S CORNER*JR. COUNSELOR— Rev. Dana Narring

We each have a personal story to share.

As we move beyond summer, I'm reminded of how I'd return to school each year in September and at least one of my teachers would ask, "What did you do this summer?"

I'm sure you can remember summers gone by and many of the wonderful things that you did with family and friends.

This summer was very unique for me, as I had the blessed opportunity to attend the LWML convention with my wife and also be a delegate to the LCMS National Convention – both which were held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. There are stories galore to share – especially about the amazing outreach of the LWML and the LCMS to so many countries around the world. We truly are supporting God's children while proclaiming Christ crucified, "... to the ends of the Earth."

There also were many Bible studies, worship services, and engaging speakers. I enjoyed being connected with former classmates and seminary teachers, as well as members of the church where I had been a vicar, and also with various missionaries, etc. It was a joy to hear their personal stories and to share with others "just a little bit of Jesus" and his love.

You see, during many of our conversations, I'd often ask, "Is there anything that I can pray for ... for you?" Some people were quick to share their needs. Several people replied that they were already blessed. Others didn't really know what they would like me to pray for, but each person appreciated being connected to God in prayer.

Being able to listen to their personal stories and then connect them in prayer to a gracious and loving God, was such an uplifting part of each day. I didn't "clobber" anyone over the head with this request. But rather, I first related to them, showed them that I cared about them, and then reminded them that our Savior, Jesus, cares about them even more.

One of the unique things that happened this summer was that a convention worker, whom I met during the LWML convention in June, was also working during the LCMS convention in July. We were surprised to see each other again. She shared a personal story about how prayer had helped her, and we shared a brief conversation about how to continue to connect with Jesus.

I'm blessed to commend this gospel-centered opportunity for you to pray for others, dear friends, just as Reverend Doug Kallesen shared this with me and my wife almost 10 years ago. Over the years, it certainly has been uplifting for my wife and I ... and we've been humbled to be able to touch people's lives with the love of Jesus – by just stopping to pray for them.

May God's love for others percolate out of each of us, so that beyond our own personal stories, we can share the world's greatest story of how we are blessed by Jesus through prayer.

GREATER ORLANDO ZONE – FL

Carol Lynn Scheer - President

Our Spring Rally was held on April 15 and was hosted by the LWML ladies of Prince of Peace of Orlando. Host Pastor Ken Green's sermon followed our theme "Trust and Obey" based on Proverbs 3: 5-6. David Ludwig, Jr., church music director, taught us new refrains and responses, interweaving them with Psalm 23 and with familiar hymns, centered on trusting the Lord. It was very inspirational and moving. Our Gifts from the Heart recipient was Samaritan Resource Center of Orlando, which tries to help change the lives of neighbors living in crisis. They offer showers, hot food for lunch, counseling, change of clothing, etc. We collected and packed rolling suitcases, backpacks, men's underwear, flashlights and batteries. The ladies were encouraged to attend the LWML FL-GA District Retreat at World Golf Village, St. Augustine in September.

TREASURE COAST ZONE – FL

Cheryl Nolte - President

Activities LWML has going on at our zone churches, the Mary Martha Guild at Trinity in Fort Pierce releases a weekly prayer and a video on their page on the church website. Grace in Port St. Lucie continues to support Habitat for Children Ministries in Haiti through donations, with monthly votes to support other charities or church projects. Their church website also has an LWML page. Redeemer in Stuart has a posting about LWML on their church's Missions page. Redeemer in Vero Beach has chosen its new president, HathaLee Brown. Faith in North Palm Beach is the site of our Fall 2023 Rally. We will elect a new Zone President and Secretary. The theme is He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge (Psalm 91:4 NIV). First Care Women's Clinic will receive our Gifts from the Heart donations.

TALLAHASSEE ZONE– FL

Scarlet Holcolm - President

The LWML Quilts for Comfort group at Messiah Lutheran Valdosta, GA annually delivers hand tied red, white, and blue quilts to the Veteran's Hospital in Lake City, FL in July. The veterans greatly appreciate this gift of love as not only do they enjoy the quilts while in the hospital but they also are able to take the quilts with them when they return home.

TROPICAL ZONE – FL

Jenny Lenchner - President

LWLM ladies of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Tavernier, FL hosted a spaghetti supper fundraiser, using a Thrivent Action Team grant plus donations for the supplies. We were happy to have a lot of guests from the community and we raised $1,200 for Mites! Music was provided by one of our talented “snowbirds” from Iowa.

Betty Belair-Our Saviour Lutheran, Miami, FL
Rev. Dennis Bartels and Teresa Ward- Holy Cross Lutheran, North Miami FL

This was Pastor Bartels' last rally as Zone Pastor Counselor, as he will be officially retiring June 2023.

NORTH CENTRAL FLORIDA ZONE

Cinara Navarro - President

Our zone overall is very active in each group's communities. There are rummage sales, craft shows, speaker events, as well as fund raiser and free community meals.

There are board positions coming up for election, and we pray that God will speak to the hearts of those He has already “foreknown” in those positions.

And, we thank God everyday for His blessings, and the LWML!

SOUTH PALM BEACH ZONE– FL

Cindy Slinker - President

The theme verses for our fall rally are: For I am not ashamed of the Gospel because it is the power of God to all who believe first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. For in the Gospel the righteousness of God is revealed: a righteousness that is by faith from first to last just as it is written, the righteous shall live by faith (Romans 1:16-17). We are very much looking forward to it!

WINTER HAVEN ZONE – FL

Joyce Munz - President

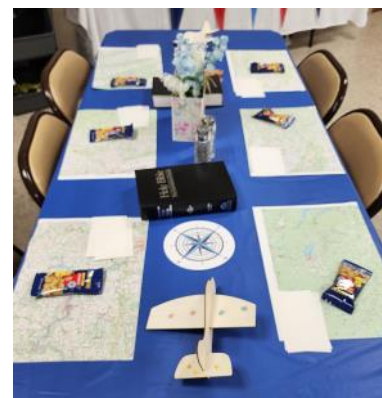

The Winter Haven Zone hosted Wendysue Fluegge for their spring Rally held in March 2023 at Our Savior, Zephyrhills. Wendysue was our musical “flight attendant” leading 39 ladies on Flight 3:16, Divine Destinations. Through music, humor, discussion, and the Word we learned to trust the Pilot on the journey, use the oxygen mask and seat belt preparing ourselves and others for the final gate.

Making our Connections was a main topic with teaching about why our Pilot re-routes us: For our Protection (Ps 5:11, 2 Corin 4:8-9); our Production (Gal 6:9; Ps 1:1-3, Jer 17:7-8); for People placed in our lives (Heb 10:25, Luke 10:10).

Our Gifts from the Heart were donations for children in the foster care system. President/Founder Tracy Hanson of Caterpillars to Butterflies gave a presentation on the services they provide.

Our hosts flew high with decorations and the in-flight meal. The day was spiritually uplifting!
